John had not thought his legs If John had not thought his legs were faster than they are the tale would have been different. He tried to stretch his hit into three bags and was nailed by perfect throwing. Then Sheely raised his long drive into the bleacher for four corners, but it was good for only one run instead of the two it ought to have meant. Mostil apparently did not realize that his run was no good without another behind it, so he without another behind it, so he would have been just as well off at hird. In fact, if he had stopped in first the score would have been on first the score would have been tied. Courtney was yanked after Sheely's blow and Schacht took his place. Talk of Danny Kramer, Philadeldee, Rock Island sensation, coming together in a ten-round bout at East Chicago in the near future has yet to bring forth anything definite. Dundee is asking $1,250 for his services, and as Kramer wants $1,500 the promoters can't see where the match is worth it.

Title Against Tendler

NEW YORK, July 12. - Benny onard, the lightweight champion and Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia southpaw, have been matched to meet for eight rounds at the Na-tional League Baseball Park in Philadelphia, on August 12. It was first thought that Tex Rickard was along for a tilt on Labor Day at his angling with this pair to send them big arena in Jersey City, but the clinching of the match by the Philadelphia promoters excludes any chance of Tex trying any further for either one of the principals.

July romping on toward August.

James J. Jeffries at 28 matched, against Jack Dempsey at 26 would have made the greatest battle in ring history. Dempsey is faster, and a harder hitter. Jeffries was heavier, stronger and perhaps even, more durable. We have heard eminent experts on either side predict, that each would drive the other. that each would drive the other through the ropes. So why not let it go at that for the time being, at ,
